

John McLochie was the first name called and he stepped to the front. Judge Mc-

CAPTURED THE PARK.

A Drove of Maddened Colorado Cattle Takes Possession of Schenley.

GUSKY BREAKS HIS BONDS.

The Elephant Becomes Frantic at the Noise and Confusion.

DESPERATE BATTLE WITH STEERS.

Three Are Killed Before the Herd Is Finally Corralled.

SEVERAL PERSONS ARE ATTACKED.

Brute force held undisputed sway at Schenley Park yesterday. Ten determined men armed with revolvers were held at bay for eight hours by a drove of wild Colorado steers.

At 2 o'clock yesterday morning a drove of 46 hornless Colorado steers were being driven down Penn avenue by two cattle drovers. The heaves were being taken from the East End stock yards to the butcher shop of Peter Terseh, on the Southside.

The next instant he made a dash for liberty, followed by the entire drove. Down the street they tore, followed at a distance by the mounted drovers.

At 7:30 o'clock Team Master George Beal, of the Schenley Park working force, was astonished to see a drove of cattle browsing upon the crest of Mount Airy, the first hill from the Forbes avenue entrance.

There were two other sick men on the Tude with Snodgrass, one suffering from inflammation of the bowels, the other from an attack of typhoid fever.

Quite a large crowd of curiosity-seekers waited for the train to arrive. When Snodgrass was placed in the ambulance wagon one of the strikers attempted to raise an argument with the injured man's brother-in-law, who runs a small grocery store in Homestead.

And the Band Played. The Edgar Thomson Steel Works Band got generally demoralized last night at a Broadway lawn fete through the interference of Robert Coleman, who was drunk.

Fatally Injured at Homestead. Max Goodrich, of Bellefonte, O., a non-union worker in Homestead mill, is dying in the West Penn Hospital, of injuries which he had sustained by a train on Saturday in handling the rolls.

Was He Killed by the Cars? The coroner continues his investigation of John B. Esler's death. The coroner's inquest on the death of John B. Esler, the ironworker who was killed on the A. V. R. tracks near his home at Sandy Creek Saturday night, was begun yesterday but not completed.

A Frenchman's Views. He talks of America's greatness and some of his evils. Francis Laur, of Paris, an engineer and a member of the French Chamber of Deputies, is at the Hotel Duquesne. He is returning from Mexico, where he says he has been inspecting mines.

More Improvements. Carnegie Music Hall to Have Another Spacious Gallery Added. Andrew Carnegie intends to have Carnegie Music Hall, in Allegheny City, improved by the addition of another gallery.

Dismissed a Park Policeman. His hornless host to attention. Then he turned and belittled defiance at the bluecoats, who began to feel their courage on the ooze. Everybody was a trifle scared. The leader started this and made a charge. The bluecoats made a retreat.

Officer King Has an Adventure. Officer King's massive figure was the first in sight of the cattle. The white leader eyed him. Officer King drew his revolver. The next thing he knew his horse was wildly plunging; he received a blow and was dismounted. He arose in a dazed kind of way and fired a shot at one of the invincible stars.

Work Among the Poor. The semi-monthly report of the Pittsburgh Association for the Improvement of the Poor shows 15 new applicants, 396 families visited, 217 families aided, 879 persons included. There were 637 visits made to the poor and 128 from the poor. Situations were obtained for 5 and days work for 27. Two children were placed in Sabbath schools and four persons sent to hospitals.

A FRUITLESS FIGHT.

The Butler-Lawrence Judicial Contest Still Hangs On.

COLONEL STONE REFUSES TO ACT.

Yesterday Was Spent in an Effort to Fill the Commission.

THEY'LL MEET NEXT WEEK AT BUTLER.

Colonel William A. Stone, who a week ago, was chosen the third member of the commission selected to name a Republican candidate for judge in the Butler-Lawrence judicial district, yesterday declined to act with that commission.

With a letter declining to serve on the commission Colonel Stone sent a letter which he asked that both of the candidates for the nomination sign. The second letter bound the nominee to abide by the decision of the commission and asked that the writer be released from any and all personal obligations.

"Unless I am released from such obligations I must insist upon withdrawing from the commission," was the way in which Colonel Stone concluded his second letter.

The Butler county people protested against accepting Colonel Stone's withdrawal from the commission and insisted that he be released from all personal obligations.

Lawrence Wouldn't Release the Colonel. The Lawrence county people insisted upon accepting the Colonel's withdrawal and they refused to consider his request to be released from the personal obligations he incurred.

This yesterday was spent in another fruitless effort to settle the judicial nomination for that district, and when the conference adjourned at 11 o'clock last night they seemed further from a settlement than at the conclusion of any of their former sessions.

Another Steer Runs Amuck. The animal had his head lowered and kept on. He crashed through the barbed wire fence of the Murdoch property and started after an employe. The employe directly retired behind a tree. The steer kept right on and struck the tree with such force that the tree split in two.

The force of officers was increased by many small boys and a number of mounted men. By massing his now formidable force, General McKnight corralled a drove of 41. Then another king was pursued and, leaping back, he fell on his side. Limping on, he was finally cornered. He was surrounded by a circle of men. A cowboy was among the number, and an improvised lasso was produced. Officer Richardson took the rope and walked steadily forward. The animal made a dash for him, and he barely saved himself by falling sideways to the ground.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

CIVIL LAW SUPREME.

The Coroner's Jury Criticizes the Conduct of the Military in the Benninghoff Case—Verdict of Accidental Death Rendered—Judge Gripp's Views.

HE EXPIRED IN A PARIS HOTEL.

And Was Placed Beneath the Eod Before Friends Arrived.

HEART TROUBLE THE CAUSE ASSIGNED.

The many friends of Prof. Henri Bolla Parker will be shocked to hear of his sudden death in Paris on August 17.

The inquest was held yesterday afternoon, there being no one present but Magistrate Gripp, who acted as coroner, and the jury. The only testimony produced were affidavits by members of the regiment, Surgeon William A. Reed, and Surgeon Martin, First Lieutenant W. A. Reed and Frank B. Suley, messmate of Ford Smith, who was with Smith when the fatal shot was fired.

The present is not a time of war. In all cases of violent death the coroner of the county is bound to hold an inquest. No guard officer has a right to say, as I understand Colonel Krebs said to Squire Oeffner when the latter went to the camp to inquire: "The body is not here, but you should have it here."

The meeting yesterday was the hottest yet held by the parties to the fight. Many friends of both candidates attended, and several times during the day a quarrelsome spirit crept to the surface.

Among the Butler county people present advocating the nomination of Senator Greer were Senator Showalter, "Old Honesty" Thomas, an ex-member of the Legislature, and Judge Charles McCallister, W. Negley, editor of the Butler Citizen; J. M. Carson, editor of the Butler Eagle; Major Patterson, of Colonel Wiley's staff; J. M. Moore, secretary of the Republican County Convention; Robert E. Ryan, of the law firm of E. E. Young, E. M. Abrams, Newton Black.

Among the Lawrence county people present were Charles G. Tidball, Frank Tidball, A. C. Jones, Charles McCallister, W. D. Campbell, Perry Doud, Alexander Richardson, George M. Purmer, Henry Shoner, Joseph Craig, James Alexander, Fred Obe, and J. W. Lawrence, a brother of the Lawrence county candidate.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

PROF. PARKER'S END.

Sad and Sudden Death of a Well-Known Pittsburger.

HE EXPIRED IN A PARIS HOTEL.

And Was Placed Beneath the Eod Before Friends Arrived.

HEART TROUBLE THE CAUSE ASSIGNED.

The many friends of Prof. Henri Bolla Parker will be shocked to hear of his sudden death in Paris on August 17.

The inquest was held yesterday afternoon, there being no one present but Magistrate Gripp, who acted as coroner, and the jury. The only testimony produced were affidavits by members of the regiment, Surgeon William A. Reed, and Surgeon Martin, First Lieutenant W. A. Reed and Frank B. Suley, messmate of Ford Smith, who was with Smith when the fatal shot was fired.

The present is not a time of war. In all cases of violent death the coroner of the county is bound to hold an inquest. No guard officer has a right to say, as I understand Colonel Krebs said to Squire Oeffner when the latter went to the camp to inquire: "The body is not here, but you should have it here."

The meeting yesterday was the hottest yet held by the parties to the fight. Many friends of both candidates attended, and several times during the day a quarrelsome spirit crept to the surface.

Among the Butler county people present advocating the nomination of Senator Greer were Senator Showalter, "Old Honesty" Thomas, an ex-member of the Legislature, and Judge Charles McCallister, W. Negley, editor of the Butler Citizen; J. M. Carson, editor of the Butler Eagle; Major Patterson, of Colonel Wiley's staff; J. M. Moore, secretary of the Republican County Convention; Robert E. Ryan, of the law firm of E. E. Young, E. M. Abrams, Newton Black.

Among the Lawrence county people present were Charles G. Tidball, Frank Tidball, A. C. Jones, Charles McCallister, W. D. Campbell, Perry Doud, Alexander Richardson, George M. Purmer, Henry Shoner, Joseph Craig, James Alexander, Fred Obe, and J. W. Lawrence, a brother of the Lawrence county candidate.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

CHANGING THE SYSTEM.

Superintendent Mead Begins Remodeling the Fire Alarm Service.

THEY'LL MEET NEXT WEEK AT BUTLER.

Yesterday Was Spent in an Effort to Fill the Commission.

THEY'LL MEET NEXT WEEK AT BUTLER.

Colonel William A. Stone, who a week ago, was chosen the third member of the commission selected to name a Republican candidate for judge in the Butler-Lawrence judicial district, yesterday declined to act with that commission.

With a letter declining to serve on the commission Colonel Stone sent a letter which he asked that both of the candidates for the nomination sign. The second letter bound the nominee to abide by the decision of the commission and asked that the writer be released from any and all personal obligations.

"Unless I am released from such obligations I must insist upon withdrawing from the commission," was the way in which Colonel Stone concluded his second letter.

The Butler county people protested against accepting Colonel Stone's withdrawal from the commission and insisted that he be released from all personal obligations.

Lawrence Wouldn't Release the Colonel. The Lawrence county people insisted upon accepting the Colonel's withdrawal and they refused to consider his request to be released from the personal obligations he incurred.

This yesterday was spent in another fruitless effort to settle the judicial nomination for that district, and when the conference adjourned at 11 o'clock last night they seemed further from a settlement than at the conclusion of any of their former sessions.

Another Steer Runs Amuck. The animal had his head lowered and kept on. He crashed through the barbed wire fence of the Murdoch property and started after an employe. The employe directly retired behind a tree. The steer kept right on and struck the tree with such force that the tree split in two.

The force of officers was increased by many small boys and a number of mounted men. By massing his now formidable force, General McKnight corralled a drove of 41. Then another king was pursued and, leaping back, he fell on his side. Limping on, he was finally cornered. He was surrounded by a circle of men. A cowboy was among the number, and an improvised lasso was produced. Officer Richardson took the rope and walked steadily forward. The animal made a dash for him, and he barely saved himself by falling sideways to the ground.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

When their last conference adjourned in Pittsburgh last week they decided to meet yesterday at the Hotel Schlosser. When they met at 10 o'clock this morning, however, they decided to meet at the Hotel Anderson. Messrs. Anderson and Lee, with the six officers, immediately went into session. Mr. Anderson read the letter which Colonel Stone had written and the battle opened in dead earnest.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Leading Goods House. Pittsburgh, Pa. Tuesday, Aug. 29, 1922.

Jos. Home & Co.'s. Penn. Ave. Stores. ITS NEW GOODS NOW.

Yesterday started it. We expect much more than our customary increase in business this season, because we are going to make this a season to be remembered for low prices and big choice of good goods.

Come to-day—already a display unusually attractive. These prices will soon convince you that this is the place where you want to do your fall shopping.

Our fall assortment of fine all-wool Fancy Cheviots opened to-day. Five brand new styles and about six different new fall shades to each style.

36 inches wide, 50c a yard; 42 inches wide, 75c a yard; 50 inches wide, $1 a yard.

You know very well that the shades we show are positively correct. The new goods will show you all the fashionable colors for fall are here.

New all-wool Plain French Serges, in all the new fall shades, at prices averaging fully a half less than they ever sold for at any former season.

We secure a wonderful advantage in purchasing these goods direct from the manufacturer, and our customers appreciate the advantages we can offer. These are the new prices:

46 inches wide, 75c and 90c; 50 inches wide, $1 and $1.50; 52 inches wide, $1.50 a yard.

The biggest bargain is the one at $1, 50 inches wide. Comes in 19 colors and is equal to the best $1.50 Serge you ever bought.

New Storm Serges that are unequalled for traveling costumes, in black, brown and navy blue, also better than we have ever offered before at these prices:

38 inches wide, 50c; 42 inches wide, 65c; 50 inches wide, 75c, 85c and $1.

50-inch English Suitings at $1 a yard—a rare bargain in very choice styles, all new genuine English Suitings. They are equal to the best $1.25 goods we ever had before.

Extra values in genuine English Suitings; black or blue grounds, with white hair lines, forming stripes of different widths, 42 inches wide at $1, and 50 inches wide at $1.20 a yard.

Handsome new effects in grey English Check Suitings, with bourette splashes of contrasting colors, 50 inches wide, at $1.50 a yard.

Remember that those Bedford Cords at 75c and $1, advertised yesterday, will not be duplicated this season. We will not be able to get their equal to sell for these prices when these are gone. They come in all the new fall shades.

New Tartan Plaids are opened up to-day, 40 and 42 inches wide, 85c and $1 a yard.

More styles added to the assortment of bright Plaid Suitings that we bought for children's dresses—lots of styles and they're under value at 50c, 65c and 75c—None ever sold for less than $1 before.

Good choice yet in the fine summer goods we are closing out—fine Plisses, French Crepons, Scotch Cheviots and goods of the highest class going at 75c and $1—not one-third value.

Jos. Home & Co., 609-621 Penn. Ave. NEW IMPORTATION ART SQUARES. The Largest Stock Ever Opened in PITTSBURGH. We have just received 5,000 of the latest English and American Art Squares—the most beautiful patterns ever shown in these goods. The grades are: AYRANUM, DAMASCUS, ANGLO-INDIAN, ISTAKHER, AGRA and INGRAM. 12 Sizes. $5 TO $35 EACH. EDWARD GROETZINGER, 627 AND 629 PENN. AVE. FINE STATIONERY. W. V. DERMITY & CO., Engraving, Printing, Stationery, Wedding Invitations and Calling Cards, 407 Grant Street and 26 Sixth Avenue.

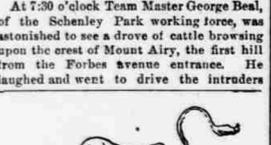

Dismissing a Park Policeman.

Dismissing a Park Policeman.

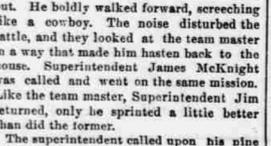

Dismissing a Park Policeman.

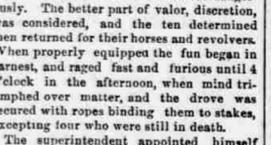

Dismissing a Park Policeman.

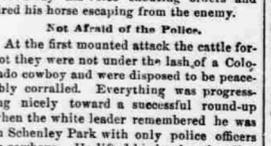

Dismissing a Park Policeman.

Dismissing a Park Policeman.

Dismissing a Park Policeman.

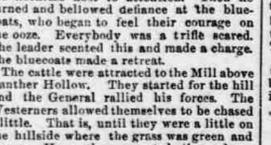

Dismissing a Park Policeman.

Dismissing a Park Policeman.

Dismissing a Park Policeman.

Dismissing a Park Policeman.

